High Achievers Recognised

Over 40 students from local high schools in the Camden Local Government Area were recognised last night at the 2013 HSC High Achievers Awards hosted by the Mayor of Camden, Councillor Lara Symkowiak.

The event honoured students who were identified by their schools as outstanding in the 2013 High School Certificate.

Mayor of Camden, Councillor Lara Symkowiak congratulated all 2013 HSC students.

“The Higher School Certificate symbolises the end of secondary school for students and I would like to congratulate all students in the Camden Local Government on their achievements, especially those who were invited to our High Achievers Reception last night”.

“The HSC is one of the greatest challenges in life and while the success belongs to the students, I’d like to also acknowledge and thank all the parents, teachers, family members and friends who supported the students through this time” she said.

Over 290 students in the Camden Local Government Area received band 5 and 6’s in the 2013 Higher School Certificate.
