NARELLAN RHYTHMS FESTIVAL 2014

Get set for an afternoon of entertainment at the 2014 Narellan Rhythms Festival on Saturday 18 October. A celebration of Camden's cultural diversity, the Festival will be a showcase of music, dance, art, fashion and food from around the globe.

Kicking off at 3pm at Nott Oval in Narellan, the Festival offers a program of free entertainment with traditional and contemporary music and dance performances including African drumming, Aboriginal dancing, Pacific Island Maori drumming and a street style parkour performance from Team9 Lives – a fusion of dance and martial arts.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Lara Symkowiak is inviting local residents to attend the event.

"The Narellan Rhythms Festival has a great line-up of dancers, singers, performers and speakers that the whole family is sure to enjoy." Cr Symkowiak said.

Festival highlights include:

- Delicious food delicacies from around the world
- A children's world playground with a range of art and cultural activities including African storytelling and puppetry
- Street theatre performance by Commedia Dell' Arte
- Meet Writer, Director and 2005 Young Australian of the Year – Khoa Do
- Official welcome at 4.30pm
- Activities for the whole family
- Local community bands and performers
- Art and crafts stalls and a photographic display
- Fashion Parade
- A finale by the Trovason Trio between 6pm and 7pm
