Council distributes funds to community groups

Funding will be allocated to 24 community organisations in the Camden local government area as part of the Community Small Grants program.

More than $87,000 will be distributed amongst the groups to pay for activities, programs and events that will contribute to the local community.

“It is encouraging to see such a strong and diverse range of community initiatives designed to enhance the lives of our residents,” said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

“These funds will be used to help not-for-profit organisations support the community with services, amenities, education and entertainment programs and facilities,” Cr Symkowiak said.

The funding will be used to support a diverse range of sports competitions and local clubs, community groups and schools. These include: -

- Eventing Equestriad
- Kids of Macarthur Health Foundation
- Aspect Macarthur School Cobbitty
- Camden Historical Society
- Cobbitty Markets
- Narellan Men’s Shed
- Camden/Wollondilly Domestic Violence Committee
