Song Writing Workshop for young people

Former The Voice Australia contestant, Michael Duchesne will be coming to Camden to share his passion and inspiration with young people in a two day Song Writing Workshop.

The guitarist, singer and songwriter will be participating in the free workshop to be held 11-12 April in a lead up to Council's popular annual event, Camden Shorts – which features live performance works in music, dance and theatre on Friday 23 June.

Michael has written more than 60 original songs and has been mentored by Australia's top international artists from The Voice and X-Factor reality singing competitions.

His unique tone and powerful vocal ability has been described as an asset to Australian Soul music and he has shared the stage with many music 'greats' including Ian Moss (Cold Chisel) and Lionel Cole (Mariah Carey).

The workshops will be held 10am-3pm, Tuesday 11 April and Wednesday 12 April at The Space Digital Studios at Narellan Library and are available to people aged 12-25 years who study, live or work in the Camden local government area.

Bookings are essential and can be made by contacting the library on 4645 5129 or by email: creative.camden@camden.nsw.gov.au.
