Seniors Festival bus trip to Blue Mountains

Camden seniors are invited to join in a bus trip to the Blue Mountains during the NSW Seniors Festival.

Council has arranged the bus trip as part of a diverse calendar of events for residents over the age of 55 to participate in during the festival, 4-15 April.

“This is a great opportunity for seniors to enjoy new experiences, interact and have fun participating in the activities on offer for the NSW Seniors Festival,” said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

“The bus trip is a chance to take a journey to the mountains and take in the sights and relax with friends,” Cr Symkowiak said.

The Seniors Bus Trip to Blackheath will offer plenty of free time to browse, shop and eat.

The bus will collect passengers at 8.30am at Camden and 9am at Narellan on Friday 20 April. Cost is $7 and includes morning tea. Bookings are essential and can be made by contacting Council on 4645 5020.
