Council funds community initiatives

Funding will be allocated to 21 community organisations in the Camden local government area as part of the Community Small Grants program.

More than $86,000 will be distributed amongst the groups to pay for activities, programs and events that will contribute to the local community.

“It is inspiring to see the diversity of projects being developed by community organisations to enhance the lives of our residents,” said Mayor Peter Sidgreaves.

“These grass roots initiatives will create opportunities for residents to engage and participate in services, education and entertainment programs chosen by our community,” Cr Sidgreaves said.

The funding will support a range of sports competitions, local clubs and community groups and organisations. These include: -

- The Junction Works
- Turning Point Camden
- Men’s Shed Narellan
- Seventh Day Adventist Church Leppington
- ASPECT
- Friends of Belgenny Farm
- Hope Anglican Church
- Narellan Lions
- Cobbitty Church
