PAW Patrol comes to Kids Fun Day

Nickelodeon's PAW Patrol will headline free family event, Kids Fun Day as part of Camden Festival next month.

Kirkham Park in Elderslie will be transformed into a wonderland for kids aged 0 – 5 years, complete with entertainment, plenty of activities and a free BBQ lunch.

“This will be a fantastic, fun filled day for children, parents and carers to enjoy the performances on and off the stage by some iconic TV personalities and characters,” said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

“The event is packed with interactive activities and entertainment as well as inclusive quiet areas that will appeal to children of all needs and abilities,” Cr Symkowiak said.

During the event, Nickelodeon's PAW Patrol characters, Chase, Marshall and Ryder will take to the stage and entertain the crowd with two performances.

There will also be performances by clown, Ace P. Freckle and a visit from Batman and the Batmobile as well as Ronald McDonald activities.

Children can enjoy the toy library and relax and enjoy the inclusive toys in a quiet area. Food and beverages will be available from a range of stalls and free soft drinks and water provided.

Kids Fun Day will be held 10am-2pm, Wednesday 19 September at Kirkham Park, Elderslie.
