Repay overdue fines with wool and canned food

Canned goods and wool are now accepted as payment for overdue library items at Camden and Narellan libraries.

The Can Your Fines appeal will run until 15 February to encourage people to return anything borrowed that is late for return.

Any overdue books, toys, DVDs, CDs or magazines brought back during the fine amnesty need to be returned with canned goods (within six months of expiry) or eight-ply knitting wool to have the fines waived.

These will be donated to local charities, Mother Hubbard's Cupboard and Big Yellow Umbrella.
