Summer school holiday activities

Local children and teenagers can keep entertained during the summer break with Camden Library Services' School Holiday Activities in January.

Camden Libraries has put together a range of activities for the Summer School Holidays including a magic show and creating your own bottled planet.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Peter Sidgreaves said the program gave local children a great opportunity to stay educated as well as entertained.

"Our libraries put on fantastic programs through each school holidays and this summer break is no exception," Cr Sidgreaves said.

"This is a great chance for our children and young people to enjoy our public facilities while also being entertained during school holidays."

Events and activities include:

- Joey Presto Magic Show - A fun magic show for kids of all ages. The show is jam-packed with amazing magic tricks, lots of audience participation and non-stop excitement plus a real live rabbit. Date: Tuesday 15 January, 2019. Time: 2-3pm. Location: Narellan Library. Age Range: 5-12 years. Cost: $5 per child
- Like, totally totes with Abigail - Design, paint and embellish your own tote bag for the beach, pool or next visit to the shops. Your workshop fee includes all materials and instruction by artist Abigail. Please wear old clothes as you will be painting & might get dirty. Date: Thursday 17 January, 2019. Time: 2-3.30PM. Location: Oran Park Library. Age Range: 6-12 years. Cost: $10 per child
- Bottled planets with the Children's Discovery Museum - It's the circle of life! Dive into the science of life cycles by creating your own bottled planet with living plants (algae) and animals (brine shrimp) to take home, care for and study. Along the way, you will learn about how our bottled planet (Earth) works. Date: Thursday 24 January, 2019. Time: 2-3pm. Location: Camden Library. Age Range: 5-12 years. Cost $10 per child
- BiBs – Babies into books and Storytime - Program returns from Monday 14 January, 2019
