Treat your tastebuds at TASTE

Produce Lane will be bigger and better than ever at this year's TASTE Camden, with even more fresh food to try and take home!

Back for its second year, Produce Lane is proudly sponsored by SmoothFM. The mini market will allow residents to purchase take home goodies including pre-packaged sweet treats, condiments, local produce, meats and fresh bread. The SmoothFM Produce Lane will be adjacent to the main event this year, showcasing more than 10 different companies from Camden and neighbouring areas. They include:

- Artisan Delish, a family owned and operated business selling traditional Italian salami and local produce;
- Brasserie Bread, with sourdough breads, croissants and tarts;
- Kieltys Irish Sauces, selling artisan barbeque and hot sauces;
- The Bearded Oak, with homemade pasta and stir-through sauces to take home;
- Currong Comestibles, with cordials, chutneys and jams based on Australian native ingredients;
- The Fudge Shop, selling handmade fudge, toffee apples, caramel apples and fairy floss; and
- Nougat Limar, with pre-packaged, French-style nougat.

But that's not all the food on offer at TASTE Camden! Step outside of the SmoothFM Produce Lane to find more than 60 food and drink stalls, with a beverage, main meal, sweet and dessert for everyone. Residents can indulge in treats from:

- Vanili, serving coffee, cold beverages and a mix of pastries;
- Ultimate Indulgence, with freshly-baked waffles and mini Dutch pancakes;
- Gelato Man, selling Italian artisan gelato;
- Gourmet Macarons, with macarons, cupcakes and other small treats;
- Rocco e Figli, cooking woodfired pizza;

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, said TASTE Camden will be held on Sunday 29 September, noon-5pm.

“This is one of my favourite events of the year because it’s such a fantastic, fun-filled, family-friendly day out,” Cr Fedeli said.

“I’m really proud to be shining the spotlight on our local food and wine suppliers and local musicians. The things they produce are amazing and they deserve to be celebrated!

“And there’s lots to learn too. There will be gardeners from the Community Gardens there on the day, to chat to residents about bees, all things gardening and how they can grow some fruit and vegetables at home.”
