The first-ever Camden edition of Monopoly is here

Camden Council is packed to the rafters with the first-ever Camden edition of Monopoly, with the 2,000 games arriving today!

The highly anticipated boardgame will first be available for purchase from the Camden Council Information Stall at the second day of the Jacaranda Festival (Saturday 23 November). They are $60 each, with all funds from the sale of the game to be donated to Lifeline Macarthur and the Camden Wollondilly Domestic Violence Committee.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, urged residents to get in quick.

“Camden Monopoly has truly been the buzz around Camden, so we are expecting these 2,000 games to fly off the shelves,” Cr Fedeli said.

“It is a classic, timeless game that residents can be proud of for generations to come. Our board features 22 popular and much-loved locations from around the Camden area, including the Macarthur Park, Argyle Street in Camden, Belgenny Farm and, my personal favourite, Birriwa Reserve Outdoor Youth Space.

“It’s so fitting this game is being sold at the Jacaranda Festival as both are such a celebration of our beautiful area. The second day of the event will focus on the ‘Jacaranda Experience’ and will include markets, dining areas entertainment and fireworks.

“And it’s the perfect Christmas present to bring family and friends together for a really fun time!”

Any games remaining after the Jacaranda Festival will be available for purchase from:

- Council Administration Building, 70 Central Avenue, Oran Park;
- Customer Service Hub at Camden Library, 40 John Street, Camden;
- Customer Service Hub at Narellan Library, corner Queen and Elyard Streets, Narellan;
- Alan Baker Art Gallery, 37 John St, Camden; and
- Camden Visitor Information Centre, 46 Camden Valley Way, Elderslie
