Free skateboarding clinics in Camden

Young residents are invited to learn to skateboard for free at Kirkham Skate Park with Council's Skateboarding Clinic back for 2019.

The clinics run in conjunction with professionals Skateology and are held on a Saturday once a month between 10am and midday.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Peter Sidgreaves said this was another great opportunity for young people over the age of 12 to get out and active in the community.

"These clinics provide an opportunity for young people to have fun together while practising their skills with a professional skateboard coach," Cr Sidgreaves said.

"Kirkham Skate Park is widely used, and I encourage local youth interested to learn to come out and give it a go."

All clinics are free of charge and include the use of helmets, skateboards and other protective equipment. Bookings are not required.
