

NAIDOC

● ● ● ●
CELEBRATING
NAIDOC
WEEK

MY NAME IS:

DO YOU KNOW WHAT ANIMAL THIS IS?

DID YOU KNOW?

'Koala' is thought to mean 'no drink' in the Australian Aboriginal language. It was thought that koalas didn't need to drink because of the moisture they get from munching on juicy eucalyptus leaves all day.

