Youth Public Art Participation Project - Workshops

If you are local young person aged 12 – 25yrs, live work or study in the Camden LGA and have creative ideas in developing an exciting new mural concept these workshops are for you!

Come along and create designs with a professional public artist. These designs will be used for new public artwork (murals) to be displayed at Narellan Library and Kirkham Park, Elderslie.

The project proposal is to develop artwork that includes local young people's ideas to be used as inspiration for new designs for these sites. There will be 2 free workshops available for young people to participate in at the following venues:

1. Narellan Library Entrance – Queen St, Narellan

Date: Wednesday 17 January 2018

Time: 10am – 1pm

Location: Red Gum Room, Upstairs of Narellan Library, Cnr Queen & Elyard St, Narellan

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

2. Kirkham Skate Park – Kirkham Park, Elderslie

Date: Saturday 20 January 2018

Time: 11:30am – 2:30pm

Location: Kirkham Skate Park, Hilder St, Elderslie

Lunch and refreshments will also be provided.
Don't forget to bring your hat.

A skate clinic facilitated by Skateology will also be provided free for young people from 10am – 12noon.
Skate decks and protective equipment will be provided.
