Oran Park Library grand opening

A huge range of family friendly entertainment will be on offer at the Oran Park Library opening event on June 30.

The grand opening celebration and free family fun day will be open to the public from 10am to 3pm and will include the motor racing theme celebrating the history of Oran Park with the racing car of local driver, Tim Brook.

“This facility will support existing and future communities with lifelong learning opportunities and a place to socialise and interact well into the future,” Cr Symkowiak said.

“It is an innovative, creative space and stands as an example of how Camden is evolving, and the great spaces we are producing,” she said.

“We have been looking forward to the opening day for some time, and hope residents will join us in the celebrations and make good use of the new facility.

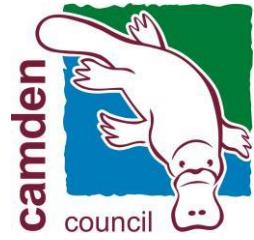

The event will be held 10am-3pm, with an official opening at 11am at Oran Park Library, Central Avenue, Oran Park, beside the Council administration building.

The day will include:

- Kids mini car racing track;
- Racing car photo booth;
- Food stalls;
- Roving performers;
- Library tours;
- Craft workshops;
- Cupcake decorating;
- Jumping castle;
- Giant garden games;
- Food and stalls;
- 3D printing demonstrations; and
- Storytime.
