Camden Community Band to entertain at Camden Library

Don't miss the Camden Community Band perform at Camden Library on Saturday 29 March, 10.30am as part of the Library's InConcert Series.

The Camden Community Band, formerly the Camden Rugby Big Band, is a thirty piece volunteer concert band that will perform a range of music on the day including modern, jazz, popular, secular, classical and swing from well-known musicals and movies.

Mayor of Camden, Councillor Lara Symkowiak said the InConcert was a popular event.

"Each InConcert event sees many people from our community enjoy free live entertainment".

"I encourage everyone who appreciates big band performances to see the Camden Community Band at Camden Library and enjoy a morning of beautiful music" she said.

Bookings are not essential and all are welcome.

For more information phone Camden Library on 4654 7951.
