Best and brightest lights awarded

Many residents and businesses adorned their homes with festive lights and decorations as part of Camden Council's annual Christmas Lights Competition. Winners were announced at a special award ceremony held on Friday 16 December 2016.

"Council is proud to run its annual Christmas Lights Competition to put a spotlight on local residents and businesses who put in a tremendous effort to decorate their premises with festive lights and decorations each year."

"I've seen some impressive lights and displays throughout Camden local government area and I commend all participants for taking the time to deck their homes and brighten up our streets as part of the annual competition," Cr Symkowiak said.

Three residential and one business category made this year's list, which included Best Lit, Best Novelty, Best Street, Best Residential/Commercial. There was also a People's Choice award voted by the local community.

Winners include:

- Best Lit: Donna and Ian Moore of The Whitewater, Mount Annan
- Best Novelty: Christian Boughton of Waterworth Drive, Narellan Vale
- Best Street: Rita McAvoy of The Rapids, Mount Annan
- Best Non Residential/Commercial: Eden Spa
- People's Choice: Christian Boughton of Waterworth Drive, Narellan Vale
