Award winning author speaks at Narellan Library

Award winning novel, Harry's World will be brought to life by its author at Narellan Library on Monday 14 August.

Author, Andrew Patterson will talk about how his experiences as a Detective Sergeant for the Western Australia Police and a Chief Investigator for ICAC have inspired his debut novel.

The central character of the story is Private Investigator, Harry Kenmare, who is on a mission for justice, looking to shatter the facades of Sydney's corrupt social and political elite.

Mr Patterson will talk about how he brings his first-hand knowledge of corruption, power and crime to the pages of his book during his author talk.

The novel has been awarded the Outstanding Mystery 2016 for the Independent Author Network Book of the Year Awards, a bronze medal in the 2016 Independent Publisher Book Awards and a bronze medal in the 2016 Global Ebook Awards.

The free author talk will be held 6pm-7.30pm, Monday 14 August and bookings can be made online at www.library.camden.nsw.gov.au or by contacting the library on 4645 5039.
