Free workshop for creative industry businesses

Creative industry practitioners in the Camden area are invited to a free workshop to help build their own business.

Creative Plus Business will provide Top Ten Tips to creative people who are already, or who aspire to be self-employed as a filmmaker, writer, designer, visual artist or performer.

Award winning creative industries consultant and trainer with 30 years of personal experience in arts business, Monica Davidson, will present the workshop at 10am-12.30pm, Tuesday 19 September at the Camden Civic Centre.

The workshop is being held as part of Council's Business Month initiative and is part of Business Connect, which is a NSW Department of Industry program offering a quality, personalised business advisory service.

Bookings can be made online at www.stickytickets.com.au.
