Author visits Camden Library

Join Camden Council Library Service for an evening with local author John R Bicknell as he introduces his new book Twelve Years in "Care": A British Child Migrant's Story.

In the book, Bicknell recounts his experiences as part of the 'unwanted generations', more than 15,000 boys and girls who 'volunteered' to migrate from the United Kingdom to many colonies of the then British Empire, including Australia, between the 1860's and 1960's.

The free author talk will be held at 6.30pm, Wednesday 24 January at Camden Library, 40 John Street, Camden. Booking are essential and can be made at www.library.camden.nsw.gov.au/bookings.
