Creative Camden Hub classes on offer

A dynamic list of arts programs will be run this year as part of the Making Spaces – Creative Camden Hub community project.

The program involves local artists offering exciting studio, workshop and performance experiences for people of all ages.

“Council is proud to provide a creative space to support local artists to share their talents and skills with the community,” said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

“Our creative community in Camden is growing and there are fun learning opportunities to explore in different artforms,” Cr Symkowiak said.

“The Creative Camden Hub will also provide a social place for the community to meet and learn together,” she said.

The Making Spaces – Creative Camden Hub program offers a diverse range of classes including:

- Children’s art classes
- Indian Dance classes for children and adults
- Theatrical and performance experiences
- Visual arts experiences in drawing and painting
- Textile workshops and masterclasses
- Young Musicians Network

The program will run between March and November at Harrington Park Community Centre at 33 Fairwater Drive Harrington Park.
