“There will be a range of stallholders involved in this event which celebrates everything that is unique about the culture of India,” Cr Sidgreaves said.

“Camden is a diverse community and through events such as these we show we are appreciative and proud of all the cultures that make our community great,” he said.

The free event will include live entertainment, cultural performances, food and drink. The Festival of Lights will be held 5pm-9pm, Saturday 20 October at Town Park, Oran Park.
