Job seeker workshop for young people

Young people wanting to break into the job market for the first time or change careers are invited to join in a free job seeker workshop.

The Youth Library Services Job Seeker Workshop provides people aged 14 – 25 years with strategies and resources to progress their job opportunities.

Participants will hear from job search coaching experts, CEO of One, on how to put together a career action plan, manage social media effectively, grow networks for developing job opportunities and learn how to break into the hidden job market.

Bookings are being taken now for the free one day event, to be held 10am to 2.30pm, Saturday 24 March at Narellan Library. Contact the library on 4645 5039 or book online: www.library.camden.nsw.gov.au/bookings.
