Keeping Cool, Clever and Connected for Seniors Festival

Food, entertainment and photography will be shared as part of Council's Keeping Cool, Clever and Connected program to celebrate the NSW Seniors Festival.

Council has arranged a diverse calendar of events for residents over the age of 55 to participate in during the festival which is to be held between 4-15 April.

"This program will provide seniors with opportunities to try something new, socialise and meet people," said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

"Finding creative outlets can help to stimulate the mind and inspire good health and activity," Cr Symkowiak said.

"We want our senior residents to enjoy quality lifestyles by actively participating in events and continually creating new experiences," she said.

The classes include: -
