Live and Local Lineup Confirmed

Camden's Argyle Street will soon become a venue for local up and coming musicians, when the second Live and Local event kicks off later this month.

The free live music event on Saturday 23 June will involve more than 50 artists and 15 local businesses in the Camden Town Centre.

Mayor Lara Symkowiak said the event had already increased in size since its inception last year.

"Live and Local is a unique event that showcases both the talent of our local musicians and the great venues Camden has to offer," Cr Symkowiak said.

"We are proud to say the event was well received last year, and we hope it will continue to grow and provide a platform for local artists.

"We invite residents of all ages to come down to Argyle St and enjoy the experience."

Both traditional and non-traditional music venues will become stages for the event, including Barenz; Alan Baker Art Gallery; Barenz; Camden Hotel; Shoetalk; Upstairs at Fred's; and Camden Arcade among others.

The event is part of the Western Sydney Live and Local Strategic Initiative, funded by the Live Music Office and Create NSW, and will include local favourites such as Peter McWhirter; Hollie Col; The Fat Controllers; Fishers Ghost Youth Orchestra; Neilly Rich; NeillyRich; White Melodies and many more.

Live and Local will run from 2pm to 6pm on Saturday 23 June.
