Tickets on sale for Youth Movie Night

Tickets are now on sale for the Camden Festival's Youth Movie Night screening of science fiction movie, The Darkest Minds (M).

The recently released film follows a group of young teens that are considered to be a threat to the government when they develop powerful new abilities.

The movie night will be hosted by Camden Council's Youth Council in partnership with United Cinemas Narellan and include a photo booth and a lucky door prize for entrants.

The event begins at 6pm Thursday 20 September at United Cinemas Narellan and is for young residents aged 12 – 25yrs. Tickets cost $5 and include popcorn and a drink and can be purchased via the website, www.camdenfestival.com.au. Limited spaces available so don't wait to book your tickets.
