Say SHAZAM! for $5 movie tickets

Residents in Years 7-12 are invited to say the magic word – SHAZAM! – to attend Camden Council's $5 Movie Night on Thursday 18 April, 6.45pm, at United Cinemas, Narellan Town Centre.

The event will screen Warner Bros. Pictures' new film, Shazam!, which tells the tale of a streetwise 14-year-old who can magically transform into the adult superhero Shazam, simply by shouting the magic word.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Peter Sidgreaves, said the $5 movie ticket also includes a free popcorn and drink combo.

"This event is part of Council's celebration of NSW Youth Week, which runs from Wednesday 10 to Thursday 18 April," Cr Sidgreaves said.

"37 per cent of our population here in Camden is under 30 years old, which is why it's so important we organise fun, productive and educational activities for our young residents."

Council's Youth Week program includes more than 20 different events and activities, including:

- Sporting day fun, tailored to young people with disability, on Wednesday 10 April, 10am-3pm, at Oran Park Library;
- StreetGym, bringing a number of sporting activities to Birriwa Reserve Outdoor Youth Space, on Wednesday 10 April, 3-6pm;
- Bring Your Own Beat music jam on Thursday 11 and 18 April, 7-11pm, at Camden Civic Centre;
- Late night volleyball on Friday 12 April, 9pm-midnight, at Mount Annan Leisure Centre;
- 3 on 3 basketball on Saturday 13 April, noon-5pm, at Mount Annan Leisure Centre;
- Skate clinic on Saturday 13 April, 10am-noon, at Kirkham Skate Park; and
- Games day, incorporating both video and board games, on Thursday 18 April, 11am-4pm, at Oran Park Library.
