Applications open for Community Small Grants

Not-for-profit community groups and organisations can receive of up to $6,500 with applications now open for Council's Community Small Grants Program.

The program allows not-for-profit groups to apply for funding for a local project.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli said the funding offer was a great opportunity for groups that were the lifeblood of the community.

"Not-for-profit community groups do so much great work in the community with little funds so this is a great chance for them to get some assistance," Cr Fedeli said.

"To be eligible for funding, you must be a not-for-profit incorporated body or a registered charitable organisation offering a project in the Camden local government area, or primarily for the Camden community.

"I urge all local not-for-profit groups to apply

Applications for the Community Small Grants program are open annually.
