Council says thank you to volunteers

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, said thank you to almost 70 local organisations on behalf of Camden Council, at the annual Volunteer Thank You Reception.

More than 250 people attended the reception, which was hosted at Camden Civic Centre last night (Wednesday 4 December). It was an opportunity to give back to those individuals and groups always giving to others and they were treated to dinner and dessert, entertainment and a gift, with even a few lucky door prizes up for grabs.

The groups acknowledged at the reception included:

- Argyle Street Business Collective;
- Bushcare Volunteers;
- Camden Art Prize Committee;
- Camden Bicentennial Equestrian Park Committee;
- Camden Chamber of Commerce Tourism and Industry;
- Camden Historical Society;
- Camden Rural Fire Service;
- Camden SES;
- Cobbitty Rural Fire Service;
- Harrington Park Seniors Group;
- Heritage Advisory Committee;
- Macarthur Disability Service;
- Narellan Lions Club; and
- Narellan Men's Shed.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, said the number of volunteers thanked last night spoke volumes about the Camden community.

“It warms my heart to see so many people put their hand up to volunteer for Council, despite leading such busy lives themselves,” Cr Fedeli said.

“The Camden community has a long history of volunteering, with voluntary organisations going back as far as the 19th century.

“The time and effort these volunteers have put in throughout the year means so much to us here at Council, as well as the broader community. Without their help and support, many of the things we do here at Council would not be possible.

“The contribution made to the Camden area by these volunteers is absolutely invaluable and we simply can't thank them enough.”
