Get your popcorn ready for TWO movie nights

It's time to start popping for popcorn – Council's TWO movie nights, scheduled as part of Camden Festival celebrations, are fast approaching!

Cinema Under the Stars will be held on Saturday 14 September, 5pm, at The Australian Botanic Garden, Mount Annan. This FREE, family-fun event will screen The Incredibles 2. Children are invited to come dressed as their favourite superhero to meet a special guest – Mr Incredible himself!

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, encouraged residents to bring a blanket, sleeping bags, some cushions or chairs and get comfortable in front of the big screen.

"It's the perfect night in, with a twist!" Cr Fedeli said.

"There will be free popcorn and other food and desserts to purchase around Lakeside, so everyone can enjoy something to nibble on while watching the movie.

"This is also the first year we're introducing closed captions at this event, which I am very proud of. It means our residents with hearing difficulties can enjoy the fantastic night too."

Residents aged 12 to 24 years are invited to buckle up for Youth Movie Night on Thursday 19 September, 6.30pm, at United Cinemas Narellan. For $5, attendees will enjoy Fast and Furious Presents: Hobbs and Shaw (rated M), as well as popcorn and a drink.

There's lots more planned for the broader Camden Festival, including:

- Picnic in the Park on Sunday 8 September;
- Seniors Lunch @ Camden Civic Centre on Wednesday 11 September;
- Skateboarding Clinic at Kirkham Park on Saturday 14 September;
- Kids Fun Day on Wednesday 18 September;
- Backyard Bash on Saturday 21 September; and
- TASTE Camden on Sunday 29 September.
