Free Chemical CleanOut event

Residents can dispose of their old and unwanted chemical materials at the annual Chemical Cleanout next month.

Chemical CleanOut is a joint event between Camden Council and the NSW Environmental Protection Authority and will be held on Sunday 3 February, 2019.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Peter Sidgreaves said the event was a chance for residents to clean out their homes of unwanted hazardous chemicals.

“Our Chemical Cleanout allows residents to do something good for the environment while also freeing up some room at home,” Cr Sidgreaves said.

“All chemicals will be collected at Council’s Work Depot located at 5 Millwood Avenue, Narellan and disposed of in a safe and environmentally friendly manner.”

Items that will be accepted on the day include:-

- Solvents and household cleaners;
- Floor care products;
- Ammonia-based cleaners;
- Pesticides and herbicides;
- Poisons;
- Pool chemicals;
- Hobby chemicals;
- Motor fuels;
- Fluorescent globes and tubes;
- Acids and alkalis;
- Smoke detectors;
- Paint and paint-related products;
- Gas bottles;
- Fire extinguishers;
- Car and household batteries; and
- Motor oils and cooking oils.

The event will be held at Council’s Works Depot located at 5 Millwood Avenue, Narellan and will run between 9am and 3.30pm.
